

Characteristics of Effective Collaboration

Group members are completing their set tasks in the set time

Tasks are assigned to group members based on strengths and equity

Progress against the key outcomes is continuously monitored

Group members provide support and constructive feedback to the group

All group members provide their own ideas, insights, and opinions to the group

All group members value and consider the ideas, insights, and opinions of others in the group